Alwayz on the Run

Alwayz on the Run The PREMIER Lenny Kravitz Tribute

About

Are You Gonna Go My Way, Fly Away, and American Woman set the guitar-driven tone for Alwayz on the Run. The six-member Atlanta act grew out of Hope's Anchor to celebrate Lenny Kravitz. Its repertoire connects the big rock songs with Again and It Ain't Over 'til It's Over, tracing the mix of retro soul, funk, and hard rock that shapes the music. The show is offered for festivals, clubs, corporate events, and private functions.

Short bio

Alwayz on the Run is an Atlanta-based tribute to Lenny Kravitz, delivering familiar anthems, deep grooves, soulful ballads, and a high-energy, high-production show for festivals, corporate events, private functions, and clubs.

Full press bio

Alwayz on the Run is an Atlanta-based tribute to Lenny Kravitz from the Hope's Anchor musical collective. The band recreates Kravitz's blend of psychedelic soul, hard rock, funk, and modern groove through anthems including Are You Gonna Go My Way, Fly Away, and American Woman; deep grooves such as It Ain't Over 'til It's Over and Always on the Run; and soulful ballads including Again and Let Love Rule. Available for festivals, corporate events, private functions, and club dates, the project brings a high-production, high-energy show focused on familiar songs, strong musicianship, and retro-rock feel.
