Black Daze

Tribute to Soundgarden

About

BLACK DAZE is the ultimate Soundgarden tribute from Los Angeles, fronted by powerhouse vocalist Chaz Leon (Kings of Thrash with Dave Ellefson). Formed in 2019, BLACK DAZE was created to deliver a true-to-the-source tribute honoring the iconic legacy of Soundgarden, capturing the intensity, precision, and raw emotion of one of rock's most powerful bands.

BLACK DAZE delivers a full-spectrum Soundgarden experience, performing songs spanning the band's entire career — from the early raw energy of Ultramega OK and Louder Than Love, to the heavy riff-driven masterpieces of Badmotorfinger, the dark brilliance of Superunknown, and the haunting beauty of Down on the Upside and King Animal. Their setlists include fan favorites like "Outshined," "Rusty Cage," "The Day I Tried to Live," "Fell on Black Days," "Spoonman," "Jesus Christ Pose," "Burden in My Hand," and "Black Hole Sun," alongside deep cuts such as "Slaves & Bulldozers," "Limo Wreck," and "Room A Thousand Years Wide" that hardcore fans rarely hear live.

Beyond Soundgarden, BLACK DAZE also honors Chris Cornell's full legacy, performing select hits from Audioslave, Temple of the Dog, and his solo work — including powerful renditions of "Like a Stone," "Cochise," "Hunger Strike," "Can't Change Me," and "Seasons."

BLACK DAZE offers an authentic, high-energy, and musically faithful tribute to one of rock's most innovative and influential bands, giving fans a chance to relive the crushing riffs, soaring vocals, and dark beauty that defined Soundgarden
