About

Hardwired is a Metallica tribute from Tampa, Florida, formed in late 2020. The band performs songs from every era of Metallica's career in a full-length rock show built around authentic custom Metallica instruments and stage props.

The band has performed at House of Blues, Hard Rock Cafes, Revolution Live, and the 26th Leesburg Bikefest. Hardwired was also invited by Metallica to perform as part of the November 2022 Zazula Tribute show and Metallica's M72 tour.

With sets running over two hours, Hardwired is available for events, venues, casinos, and private parties. The format gives buyers a clear Metallica-focused show with a broad repertoire and production elements already central to the act's presentation.
