SELF ESTEEM: The Ultimate Offspring Tribute

About

Self Esteem delivers the definitive, high-octane tribute to the pioneers of SoCal pop-punk: The Offspring. Bringing the blistering energy, infectious hooks, and unmistakable grit of the 90s skate punk explosion to the stage, Self Esteem turns every venue into an absolute riot of nostalgia.

Formed by a crew of die-hard musicians and fans of the legendary band, Self Esteem captures the exact sonic assault that put Orange County punk on the global map. From the breakthrough, middle-finger anthems of Smash to the chart-topping hooks of Americana and beyond, the band meticulously recreates the signature Dual-Rectifier guitar crunch, driving bass lines, and soaring, melodic vocals that defined a generation.

There’s no slowing down and no backing off. The setlist is a relentless barrage of hits, including "Come Out and Play," "The Kids Aren't Alright," "Self Esteem," "Gotta Get Away," and "Pretty Fly (For a White Guy)." Whether you’re an old-school fan who lived through the Epitaph Records golden era or a newcomer ready to experience the energy of a classic SoCal punk show, Self Esteem brings a stadium-sized performance to the stage every single night.

Grab a beer, get in the pit, and get ready to yell along. This is the real deal.
